Newsletter: “The Puget Sound Flyfishers News” is published monthly by Larry Gibbs, Editor - flytier015@msn.com. Everyone is encouraged to contribute articles to the newsletter. The newsletter is published electronically – free. If you need a hard copy, there is a $14.00 yearly charge.

PSFF Website: The Club website – www.psff.org. The website is monitored by Pete Kauffman – mcpak@comcast.net.

Library: The Club owns one of the finest collections of fly fishing books and videos in the Northwest. Every paid up member may check out a maximum of 3 items each month and return the items within 2 months. Each item has an attached card to record the date the item was checked out and the name of the member. The library is maintained by Mike Clancy – mtclancy@earthlink.net

Federation of Flyfishers: The FFF www.fedflyfishers.org is our nationally fly fishing organization located in Livingston, MT. The Puget Sound Flyfishers has been an affiliated club of the FFF since 1965 when the FFF was organized. Many members of the PSFF helped to organize the FFF. The Washington State Council FFF www.washingtoncouncilfff.org is our State organization representing the FFF members in Washington.

Brief History: PSFF was founded 50+ years ago, in 1956 by a group of individuals interested in organizing a fly fishing club in Tacoma. The Club has a rich history of education, conservation and community service. The members of PSFF are proud of our organization and our goal is to continue with that theme.

WELCOME TO OUR CLUB – You are welcome to participate in all club activities.
